

CREATIVE SKILLS EUROPE – European social partners supporting skills in the live performance and audiovisual sectors

Webinar, Tuesday 17 September 2024, 10:00 to 12:00 (CEST)

Presentation text:

How to improve the relevance, quality, accessibility and participation in lifelong learning for the professionals of the audiovisual and live performance sectors across Europe?

As part of the Creative Skills Week, join us online on Tuesday 17 September at 10am (CEST) to learn more about the Creative Skills Europe initiative, and hear from sector experts about why we should gather more intelligence and invest in data to track developments, identify skills needs, and develop new training offers.

Creative Skills Europe is a project jointly implemented by Pearle*- Live Performance Europe, the European Broadcasting Union (EBU), the International Federation of Musicians (FIM), the International Federation of Actors (FIA), the European Federation of Journalists (EFJ), and the Media, Entertainment & Arts sector of UNI Europa (EURO-MEI).

Interpretation will be made available in English, French and Spanish.

Draft Agenda :

10:00 Welcome by European social partners

10:15 The European Framework of Actions on Skills in the Audiovisual and Live Performance sectors :

10:30 Using data as a tool to empower the live performance and audiovisual sectors

- How socio-demographic indicators for audiovisual companies and employees in France are used to adjust the sector training offer
Ségolène Dupont, General Delegate, CPNEF AV, France

- Acquiring the right skills in the cultural sector to better understand and use data in the digital environment
Coro Bonson, Coordinator, Association of Symphonic Orchestras, Spain

11:45 Launch of the Creative Skills Europe campaign ‘Creative Pathways to Creative Careers’

12:00 Meeting ends