Creative Skills Week 2026 aims to serve as a central hub for the Cultural and Creative Sector and Industries (CCSI), offering a dedicated platform for sharing knowledge and promoting new approaches to re-skilling and up-skilling. Creative Skills Week 2026 (hereinafter CSW2026) is co-organised by EIT Culture and Creativity, CYANOTYPES and Creative Futures Academy, in collaboration with the Creative Pact for Skills, CREDEX and the GreenCCircle project. The event is kindly co-hosted by ICHEC Brussels Management School and LUCA School of Arts, and is curated by ELIA (hereinafter 'Organisers').

The Creative Skills Week Privacy Policy applies to CSW2026, which deals with the personal data transmitted to it in accordance with the legislation in force, and in particular the General Data Protection Regulation \(GDPR\) of 25 May 2018 and its executive decrees.

Reports of misconduct can be made confidentially to a member of the Organiser Team or via an anonymous online form.

INCLUSIVITY AND ACCESSIBILITY

The Organisers are dedicated to hosting events that prioritise equity, diversity, inclusion, and accessibility. We have worked together to make Creative Skills Week events a safer and more accessible space for all.

Should you have any specific accessibility needs (such as transport assistance, support from a staff member, sign language, or a printed programme in large letters), or if you need help registering for the event and/or registering an assistant to accompany you, please contact the Organiser Team, so that we can ensure that the event is inclusive and accessible to you.

All our events have a support system in place. If you witness any harassing or discriminatory behaviour during the event, please contact a member of the Organiser Team.

If you prefer to make an anonymous report, please tell us via the online form.

We value any feedback you may have on how inclusive and accessible you have found this event. You can submit your feedback in the event evaluation report that will be disseminated after the event. Your honesty is appreciated and will help us to understand how to improve the inclusivity and accessibility of our future events. The feedback will be collected anonymously. At the same time, we warmly invite you to contact us if you wish to talk in greater about the inclusivity and accessibility of our events. For this, you can reach out to the event organisers at info@creativeskillsweek.eu.
